

Dylan Potts Named Fellow of The Litigation Counsel of America

Gill Ragon Owen, P.A. is pleased to announce attorney Dylan H. Potts has been selected as a 2024 Fellow of the Litigation Counsel of America (LCA) for his exceptional work as a trial attorney. The Litigation Counsel of America is an invitation-only trial lawyer honorary society established to reflect the new face of the American bar. Membership is limited to 3,500 Fellows, representing less than one-half of one percent of American lawyers. The composition of the LCA is aggressively diverse, with recognition of excellence among American litigation and trial counsel across all segments of the bar. The purpose of the LCA is to recognize deserving, experienced, and highly qualified lawyers, to provide an outlet for scholarly authorship of legal articles on trial and litigation practice, to provide additional sources for professional development, to promote superior advocacy and ethical standards in the practice of law, to assist in community involvement by its membership, and to advance a superior judiciary by taking relevant positions on issues or legislation affecting judicial compensation and/or benefits, as well as those affecting the American litigation process. Fellows are selected and invited into Fellowship after being evaluated for effectiveness and accomplishment in litigation and trial work, along with ethical reputation.

“The firm is thrilled to congratulate Dylan on this prestigious honor,” said Matthew Finch, the firm’s President. “He is an exceedingly talented trial attorney and an invaluable member of our firm. His admission into the Litigation Counsel of America and recognition by his peers and clients is well deserved.”

Mr. Potts, a shareholder and director of Gill Ragon Owen, P.A., concentrates his practice on complex business, tort and employment litigation.
